

Walk through the military and civilian camps and watch battles from the 1800s come to life at

The Battles of Texas

The Texas Revolution
1835 to 1836

The Indian Wars
in Texas from 1836 to 1860

The Civil War
1861 to 1865

April 11-13, 2014

hosted by the Sealy Area Historical Society

in conjunction with the annual

Spring Picnic

celebrating the founding of Sealy in 1879

Santa Fe Museum Park @ Main St & Silliman St, 3½ blocks east of Hwy 36 (across the railroad tracks) in Sealy, TX 77474

The Battles of Texas brings history to life. Step back in time and experience the camp life. Walk through the camps and talk with the soldiers and their families. See demonstrations of life in the 1800s. Visit with the living historians.

Smell the smoke from burnt black powder as you experience the battles up close and personally.

Learn what life was like then. Feel like you were there.
